

Petra Fügedi

Psychologist, talent expert

Petra completed her MA studies in Psychology and French literature together with interpreting and translation studies at Szeged University. After getting her master in counselling she started working as a school psychologist focusing on gifted students coming from disadvantaged strata of the society.

Presently she also works as a part-time lecturer at the Institute of Psychology of Budapest and at the Institute of Psychology of Szeged where she delivers courses for psychologists and teachers on psychological counselling, especially counselling gifted students.

Her main fields of interest: counselling and teacher training in; mental health of young and creative gifted individuals; she loves organising extra curricular activities for gifted youngsters.